Read the following passage and then answer the question.

Two most important things that we have are our heritage and our culture. I believe our heritage isn't money. It isn't house or something like this. Every good thing that we can learn from our parents is our real heritage. We must be proud of this heritage.

Another thing that we must care is our culture. Our culture consists of our history too. We must know our past. If you identify your past, you will identify yourself. We are responsible for protecting our history and heritage for the next generation. We must protect our parent's morals, values and principles for our future generations. In addition, we must be proud of ourselves because we belong to this country, Ian.

1-Why is our history so important?

2-what happens to us if we don't identify our past?

3-the underlined word (it) in paragraph (1) line (2) refers to

1-culture 2-heritage 3-value 4-principle

4-we must just take care of our heritage. TO FO
